B'NAI MITZVAH

September 9

Noah Yousha

Eric & LaDonna

My name is Noah Yousha. I am a seventh grader at Salk Middle School where I am a member of the National Junior Honor Society, NYSMMA, and Tri-M. I love playing in my band, "Into the Void". I also love scuba diving, Boy Scouts, playing with my dog Zep and vacationing at Disney! I want to thank Rabbi Nacht and, especially, Mrs. Altman for helping me prepare for my bar mitzvah!

September 16

Daniel Ferrara

Jerry & Andrea

Daniel is a student at Island Trees Memorial Middle School. He participates in Science Olympiads and the National Junior Honor Society. His mitzvah project entailed making pillow cases for sick children in hospitals such as Cohen Children's Hospital and Winthrop's Cancer Center for Kids. He is an animal lover and likes to care for his many fish and dog Teddy. Many thanks to Mrs. Altman for all of her help with preparing him for his bar mitzvah!

TBT Jr. Players is pleased to announce this year's production will be "13" The Musical.

The story concerns the life of a 13-year-old boy as he moves from New York City to Appleton, Indiana, and his dilemma when the move conflicts with the celebration of his Bar Mitzvah.

Auditions for our cast, ages 10 – 18, will be held on Sunday September 10th from Noon to 2pm and Monday September 11th from 7:00 to 9:00PM. Auditions will be held in the Social Hall. There is a $75 performance fee.

You must be prepared to sing, and possibly dance. Come prepared for the audition with sheet music to a song from a Broadway or Hollywood Musical. A song from 13 is preferred. Also please make sure that the song is in your key.

Please note that this year, while we will allow you to use a karaoke or instrumental track for the music, you will not be permitted to sing from lyrics on your phone or tablet.

INSPIRATION FROM OUR RABBI

Summer doesn't officially end this year until Rosh Hashanah, but we all know that "summer" is over. The seasons are changing once again, as they have done every year for ages, and hopefully they will continue to do so. Change is part of nature. One of the reasons we enjoy living here on Long Island is the change of seasons: the autumn leaves, the snow in the winter, the smell of freshly cut grass in the spring and the warmth and seashore in the summer. We love this kind of change.

Change is also part of what is going on here at Temple B'nai Torah. We have a new Cantor, Rica Timman. If you have not yet heard her beautiful voice, please join us at services and hear her. We have a new Religious School Director, Meredith Lubin. She is actively working with me and with Cantor Timman to shape the direction of our religious school in exciting ways.

And more change is coming. Our merger with Temple Emanu-El of East Meadow is just ten months away. I know you have seen information about joint events that have already taken place as well as those that are being planned. Hopefully you have taken part in one of those that has already taken place. Please join us at some of these programs, services and other events and get to know our new friends and fellow congregants.

Cantor Timman, Meredith Lubin and I have already started working with Rabbi Bar-Nahum from TEEM, along with members of TEEM, not only on joint programs but also on ways to merge our services, our curriculum and more. This will continue on many fronts during this coming year. It is a very exciting time.

Of course, this month also brings our Yamim Noraim, our Days of Awe, our High Holy Days. That time of year when we focus on the past year and plan changes in our individual lives for the coming year. We have made some changes in our High Holiday music for this year, changes I trust you will enjoy.

So welcome back from what I hope was a wonderful summer. Get excited with us for this New Year and for all the changes that are in store.

L'shanah Tovah Tikateivu v'tichateimu. May you be inscribed and sealed in the Book of Life for a good New Year, 5778.

Rabbi Nacht

CHAI LIGHTS

Are you ready for a terrific year in Chai Club? Our Programming Committee has been busy organizing a varied schedule.

We opened with our picnic in August. At our first major program, we welcome Paul Joseph, an entertaining pianist who with a violinist will be performing Vivaldi's Four Seasons with a jazz influence on September 11th. According to world-renowned maestro Arthur Fegan, "Paul Joseph is certainly a composer whose music deserves to be heard. His music has a beautiful, deep felt lyricism which has an immediate emotional impact upon its listeners." We are welcoming James Coll, a charming speaker on October 2nd. We will have a membership dinner held at Domenico's on November 13th. On December 4th, our own Emily Altman, and son Howard, will lead us in a delicious Chanukah/Baking Celebration. More information will be coming on our events. Feel free to call me (516-504-0012) or email me (tessakean@gmail.com) for additional information. Please send your membership dues to the temple, attention Harvey Drucker or place them in the appropriate envelope in the office.

My Chai Board and I look forward to sharing good times with you. Check our scroll, our flyers, email, etc. to find updated information. Please note: Email is our additional communication tool. Please check your email for updates on events.

INSPIRATION FROM OUR CANTOR

Shalom to my new TBT (and TEEM) family! I am delighted to be here, and along with Rabbi Nacht, Meredith Lubin (welcome!) and the TEEM clergy, we are excited to begin this new journey together in this special year leading up to our two congregations' merger and marriage. Although I am not new to the South Shore, (for many years I was the cantor of Temple Emanu-El in Lynbrook,) everything here feels new, yet wonderfully familiar, especially as we dive into High Holy Day preparations.

Music has a way of enhancing and deepening our experiences and the Holy Days offer music that feels both authentic and familiar. Some melodies may be new to TBT, but they are some of the most majestic melodies of our tradition. Along with Rabbi Nacht, our Holy Day Adult Choir, and our organist Barry Kloda, I am preparing to be the klei kodesh (holy vessels) for all our prayers during our main services.

Our Teen and Youth Choirs will again be singing together for our Holy Day Family services. We will be trying something new with the role of our teens at services this year and both choirs will rehearse on Sundays after Religious School. Look for more information in our flyer this month.

Our TBT 'Torah Corp of Chanters' are meeting with me to prepare all the Holy Day readings. It is a wonderful tradition to hear these powerful sections of Torah at the morning services with the plaintive and unique Holy Day trop. A special todah rabbah to our Ritual Committee for helping organize our Torah Corp.

The sound of the shofar will once again pull on the strings of our souls to return and renew this New Year with the help of our expanding Shofar Choir. I hope you will consider joining us on Tuesday, September 5th (6:15pm) to learn to blow the shofar. Rabbi Bar-Nahum and I will co-lead this class to welcome both returning and new shofar blowers of all ages. See our flyer for more information.

Looking forward, I will be restarting our congregational band in conjunction with TEEM's band for Simchat Torah. Also this year, I hope to offer special services from time to time with extraordinary musical guest artists. I have been blessed to collaborate with some of New York's finest classical, jazz and klezmer virtuosos and I am excited at the prospect of bringing them to TBT.

Of course, we cannot dream big without you! If you would like to help us in growing our musical programming please consider making donations to either the Cantor Walter Lewis Music Fund or the Choir Fund.

My family and I look forward to sharing these first Holy Days with our TBT family. As the shofar calls us to gather and begin anew, I pray that the New Year be a healthy, happy and harmonious one for you and yours.

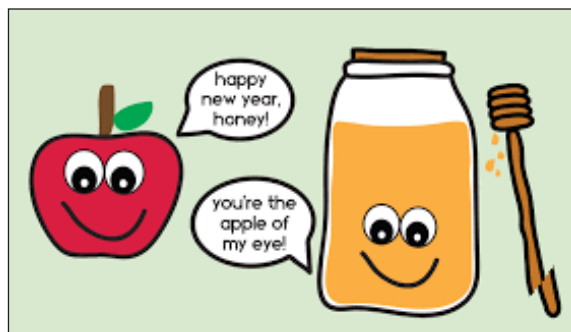

L'shana Tova,
Cantor Rica Timman

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

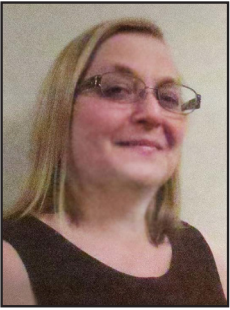

With the High Holy Days fast approaching, I have to admit that my mind has been on new beginnings lately. Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur signify, for me, a time to rejoice, leave behind sorrows, and start fresh in the new year. Sukkot, following so closely on the heels of these most sacred days, gives us an opportunity for celebration and welcome, and I have felt so welcomed by this amazing community! As we approach the new school year, these feelings that the holidays evoke for me are the things on which I have been focused. Since arriving at TBT in July, I have been hard at work consulting with parents, teachers, and students to create what I hope will be a wonderful new year for our youth. I am looking forward to a year filled with fun, innovative, and educational programming for not only our Religious School, but for BNTY, our junior and senior youth groups as well. I am so fortunate to have been welcomed into such a fantastic community as Temple B'nai Torah, and I am looking forward to my own new beginning as your Director of Education and Youth Activities. I am honored to be working with such a dedicated group of students, families, and congregants, and I know that together, we are going to have a great year.

A Shanah Tovah to all, as we embark on this new adventure together.

Meredith Lubin,
TBT Director of Education & Youth Activities

OUR TBT SISTERHOOD SOURCE

Shalom Achot. Hello, Sisters. I am excited to start the year as Sisterhood president. Thank you, Marlyn Appelt, for your great notes and support as our immediate past president. Thank you, Diane Schoenberg for working alongside me as my co-president for the first quarter of the year. I cannot wait to work with our executive board and general board to bring you amazing programs, fundraisers, beautiful items from our Judaica Shop, and more.

Our first program takes place on Monday, September 18th at 7:00. We will be learning about the comedy of Billy Crystal from the same speaker who spoke about the humor of Judge Judy. It will be a fun night full of laughs.

Rosh Hashanah begins at sundown on Wednesday, September 20th. Our Judaica shop is fully stocked with everything you might need for the holidays. Be sure to stop by the temple lobby and pick up something to make the holiday extra special. We also offer beautiful floral arrangements for Rosh Hashanah. They would be perfect for your holiday table or to send to family and friends.

To our new temple members, your first year with sisterhood is free so please come and experience all we have to offer. To those thinking about becoming a member, I urge you to do so. We are a caring, motivated group of women who support each other and our temple. Plus, we love having more sisters! If you are interested in helping out with sisterhood functions, at whatever level you are available, please contact me. There is a place for you in sisterhood!

L'Shanah Tovah from my family to yours. May the coming year be happy, healthy, and sweet!

BROTHERHOOD NEWS & VIEWS

Hope everyone had a great summer. Brotherhood held its summer Fair on July 9th. Thanks once again to Ben and Sharon Cernese for all the hard work they put into the success of our Fairs. We don't know what we would do without them. Thank you to Brian Levy for securing all the necessary permits needed to be able to hold the Fair. A special thanks to the other arms of the Temple who helped out on the day before and day of the Fair.

A special thanks to Mark Chester who let us use his home for our July and August meetings.

Brotherhood is planning some exciting things for the upcoming year so we hope that all male congregants join. Dues are only $45.00 for the year.

Congratulations to Rich Tepper who was honored, along with myself, as Brotherhood co-Man of the year at our May Dinner Meeting.

Our first breakfast is Sunday, September 10th and our first dinner is Tuesday, September 12th. Please join us.

We will be putting up the Sukkah on October 1st (after breakfast). All able-bodied men and women are welcome to help.

Once again Brotherhood will be in charge of High Holy Day ushering. If you are interested in being an usher for a short period of time during services, please let me know.

On behalf of the Brotherhood Board, I wish all of you a healthy and sweet New Year.

BROTHERHOOD MEMBERSHIP

Having finished a fun-filled and successful year, TBT Brotherhood is looking forward to a great 2017-2018. The dues are $45 for the year which entitles you to attend our monthly dinners (followed by entertainment), breakfasts on many Sunday mornings (when religious school is in session), bowling and socializing with a fun group of guys. Please join us and enjoy get-togethers and other activities to keep Brotherhood a strong and viable arm of TBT.

Please make out your check for $45 payable to: Brotherhood - Temple B'nai Torah and mail it to Brotherhood, Temple B'nai Torah, 2900 Jerusalem Ave., Wantagh, NY 11793 or drop it off in the Temple office. For further information, feel free to call Les Richards at (516) 753-4060 (e-mail: lesrichards@verizon.net).

PACK AND TROOP 189

"I never know what to write that everyone will find interesting, but they say a picture is worth a thousand words, so here are 5000 words of what we have been doing this summer."

Both Pack 189 and Troop 189 meet Thursday evenings in the youth lounge at TBT. Pack 189 meets from 6:15 until 7:30 and has an Open House scheduled for September 14. Troop 189 meets from 7:30 until 9:00 and will also welcome prospective members on September 14. If you have a question about either unit, send me an email at jjscotch2@gmail.com.

Talk to everyone soon!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Kule's

o r
n

Welcome to the summer of 2017! The dog days of summer are here and events at TBT show no sign of taking any time off or cooling down.

Once again, the peaceful transition to a new administration has taken place and President Rob Saunders has now taken the moniker of Immediate Past President. That is probably the best title any Board member can have (I can personally attest to that!). On behalf of all of us at TBT, I thank him for his service, dedication and guidance during the past 2 years. I am sure he is ready to catch his breath!

First – an update on staffing: We welcome our new Cantor, Rica Timman. She has been a breath of fresh air on the b'mah and is working hard with Rabbi Nacht on the High Holy Day services. We have also welcomed Meredith Lubin to our TBT community as Religious Educator as well as Youth Group Leader. She, as well, has been hard at work getting ready for the new school year.

Second – Merger updates: This year, our merger transition year, will present a unique set of challenges to all of us. On one hand, we need to keep our eye on TBT day to day operations. On the other, every action we take needs to consider the impact on the upcoming merger. Our transition year will be exciting, nerve racking, challenging and will ultimately lead us to a brighter future.

As I pen this column, the first joint merger committees are beginning to meet. Over 120 members from both congregations have volunteered to join the various committees. These committees will be responsible for creating policies and recommendations on the many areas that require joint discussion in order to make the merger as smooth as possible. If you have not joined a committee, there is still time – please send an email to committee@temple-bnai-torah.org with your request.

Finally, I conclude with some of my words from the installation service:

I am looking forward to helping direct us as we move ahead on our new path, one that continues our expansion and consolidation. It is a path that acknowledges and addresses the undeniable trend in demographics of our slice of earth. Our proactive actions will allow us to continue our mission instead of slowly fading into the sunset.

May my tenure be a smooth one across this transition year and one that will create a new TBT once the merger is consummated. I am honored to be in this position, excited by the potential and the possibilities presented to us this day, enthusiastic about what the future will bring to TBT as we work to complete our merger.

Jeremiah said, "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you, and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future."

Our future is filled with promise, a promise that our movement cannot only survive in this community, but thrive, a promise that TBT will not just be a Reform congregation, but a center for Reform Judaism here in southeast Nassau, a promise that we will reach beyond our walls, touching the community in ways yet to be discovered, a promise that we will continue to adapt and support our community, within our walls and within our neighborhood, truly fulfilling a promise of Tikkun Olam.

From my family to yours, may this be a year filled with health, happiness, prosperity, and, in these troubling times, peace.

Les Kule
Congregation President

TBT-PTA

It's back to school time for the Religious School and the TBT-PTA! Between all the sharp new pencils, freshly cracked crayon boxes and apples and honey for a sweet new year, September is certainly a time of fresh beginnings! We hope you plan to start the New Year off right by joining the TBT-PTA. Membership costs $18.00 and helps the PTA to provide fun and educational programs for our Religious School all year long. Plus, attending meetings is a great way to keep in touch with temple news and meet other families.

We have been hard at work over the summer making plans for the upcoming year and we have a full schedule of festivities for the whole mishpakha!

On Sunday, September 17th we will be serving our students apples and honey to wish them a Happy New Year.

Please join us on Friday, October 6th for our PTA Service in conjunction with the Consecration Service for all students starting in our Religious School this year. It is such a meaningful way to open our arms to the new students and their families and is a warm and wonderful night for all.

Saturday October 21st is our Pizza, Prayer and Pajamas event. This super fun event is always a highlight for the kids and a great way for them to reconnect with all their TBT pals. For those of you who have never attended, it is a Havdalah service, pizza party and movie night all in one! Put on your coziest jammies, find your sleeping bags and join us for this fun and meaningful evening. Please send back the forms that went home in the backpacks so that we know how many kids to plan for.

Our first PTA meeting will be on the first day of Religious School, Sunday September 10th at 11:30am in room 104. Come and see old friends, make some new ones and learn about what your PTA is planning for the upcoming year and how you can help. Babysitting will be available since this meeting is after school lets out. Our October meeting will be held on Sunday, October 29th at 10:00am, following the Brotherhood Breakfast.

It is my pleasure to announce the 2017-2018 PTA Board:

Executive Board

- Co- Presidents: Stephanie Gwerner and Brooke Myers
- Vice President: Maryann Gross
- Secretary: Meredith Rothstein
- Treasurer: Jessica Spar

Trustees:

- Class Parent Liaison and Publicity: Ilene Hellman
- Membership: Laurel Klein
- Social Action: Susan Fioribello
- Past President: Carrie Levitt

Don't hesitate to reach out to any board member with any ideas you have for the PTA. We welcome your ideas and participation!

I also encourage you to join our Facebook page "TBT-PTA". It is a great way to keep in touch, ask questions and stay involved between meetings.

From our PTA family to yours, we wish everyone L'shana Tova. May year 5778 be a year of health, happiness and above all, peace.

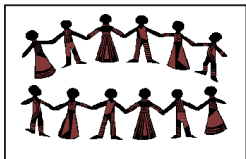

*Warmest regards,
Ilene Hellman*

CIRCLE OF FRIENDS

Welcome to a new year. Circle of Friends is a group of Temple members – singles as well as couples who enjoy each other's company in purely social settings.

We love to eat together, travel together, explore together and have fun together – the way that friends should and do! We are a growing group of members who realize that life sometimes throws us curves but no matter what our status – single or couple (married or not), young or not-so-young, Jewish or not – we need our Circle of Friends.

By the time that you read this, we have completed our first trip – our annual Sunday Sail Away this year on the Lauren Kristy – 65 foot turn-of-the-century (20th, not 21st) style riverboat docked at Bayshore Marina. It was an exciting boat cruise through the Babylon Channel, into the state boat channel, past Robert Moses SP, along Fire Island, and returning to Bay Shore. It was followed by a delicious dinner at one of our favorite restaurants. Kudos to Freyda and Warren Kolinsky for a job well done!

Plans for the new year include Military Bridge on October 28 and Game Night in February. These events – brought back from previous seasons because of their great success – promise to be fun and challenging evenings at the Temple filled with laughter, hijinks and food. We look forward to everyone joining us as Debbie and Art Schlesinger, and Yoli and Ira Friedman coordinate a great time for all.

Circle of Friends will also be going to the theater this year. In August, we joined Chai Club at Broadhollow Theater for a production of Ragtime, followed by dinner – kudos to Pearl Sutz. for her superb coordination. In October, we have plans to see a revival of Fiddler on the Roof at Bellmore Theater, followed by dinner. We are also looking forward to going to the Theater again in April – depending upon the new selections.

Our arm also joins the rest of Temple B'nai Torah in many activities. On September 23rd, we will attend the concert featuring a multi-decade band – NoteWorthy – in the Social Hall. Hopefully you will be there as a member of Circle of Friends too. Plans for the future include a December Chanukah party, a January Bowling Tournament and TBT Square Dance – something for everybody!

We are looking forward this year to expanding our membership so that more of our Temple Friends can enjoy what Circle has to offer to everyone. Look for our membership flyer in the Temple rack, on the Scroll and on the Temple website www.tbtwantagh.org. Join with your friends so that we can all be part of a bigger and better Circle of Friends!

We would like to take this opportunity to wish our extended Circle of Friends a happy, healthy and successful New Year filled with love and joy. See you at High Holiday services. L'Shana Tovah.

*Sharon & Ben Cernese
Co-Presidents, Circle of Friends*

JOIN US FOR TASHLICH

The best start to the New Year is to celebrate Rosh Hashanah. Tashlich adds to the pleasure. When we participate in Tashlich we combine Judaism with Nature and draw closer to the meaning of the day. Tashlich is a long standing Jewish practice of symbolically casting off sins into flowing water. Bring a slice or two of bread.

We assemble on the first day of Rosh Hashanah, September 21st at lovely Forest City Park, at the small, totally shaded bridge that spans a lovely stream - all just minutes from TBT.

We meet shortly after the end of morning services. The experience takes less than thirty minutes.

Directions are below

Bring the family and add to the holiday.

DIRECTIONS TO FOREST CITY PARK FROM TEMPLE B'NAI TORAH --drive time about three minutes--

CROSS JERUSALEM AVE. AND GO NORTH ON OAKFIELD AVE. FOR ½ MILE Turn RIGHT onto BARRIE AVE. (before the Southern State overpass) Make a quick LEFT on MORGAN DRIVE

Follow MORGAN around to the stop sign at POND ROAD

Turn LEFT on POND ROAD and enter FOREST CITY PARK

We gather at small shaded bridge near the Picnic Area.

See you there

FROM THE EDITOR'S PEN

There's a lot to miss about summer, especially as summer at Temple B'nai Torah has a charm of its own.

Shabbat services were both less formal and very creative: beach services, picnic services, BBQ Shabbat-Under-The-Stars with Temple Emanu-Elplus the 'home' services led by lay leaders from our congregation. Not to mention make-your-own sundaes at the Oneg!

It is interesting to notice that the first official day of autumn occurs on the first day of Rosh Hashanah! An ending and a beginning, as we welcome the New Year of 5778.

Commencing with this issue, and thanks to a generous benefactor, TBTTimes will publish monthly. See everyone next month!
