INSPIRATION FROM OUR RABBI

Yes, the High Holy Days are right on time!

It is a refrain among Jewish professionals that the High Holy Days are never early or late, but they are always right on time. This year, these important days on our calendar arrive especially on time! Now, of course, that's a tongue-in-cheek way of saying that they arrive in early September this year, not late September, or even October. Nonetheless, they always arrive right when we need them, if not always when we might want them.

This year, I'm considering the High Holy Days right on time because Rosh Hashanah arrives as we celebrate Labor Day. On the surface, this might not mean too much, Labor Day and the Days of Awe seem to have very little in common. Labor Day denotes the unofficial end to the summer. It is the date we circle on the calendar telling us that everything reverts from the breeziness of the long sunlit days to the regimen and routine of school and work schedules. The days get shorter as the shadows lengthen, and Labor Day affords us one final opportunity to gather together and revel in the summer warmth.

The High Holy Days can be seen to serve a similar purpose. These days arrive to remind us of the routines that we may have left behind over the previous year; the connections to our history and traditions, the seeking out of the Eternal in our midst, and the commitment to a life on the path of mitzvot, of commandedness, and ma'asim tovim, good deeds. The High Holy Days are circled on our calendars to remind us that it's time to come back, it's time to return to that which brings added meaning to our lives: our traditions, our confessions, and our Jewish community.

The High Holy Days have also always been a time when our entire community gathers together; all generations, all kinds of families, all standing before God as one community and congregation. One of the many names for a Jewish house of worship in Hebrew is Beit Knesset, literally translated to a house of gathering. How sad it was when we couldn't gather together as a community, and what joy we feel now being back together again for prayer and worship! This year, the especially on time nature of the High Holy Days seems to tell us that we ought not wait any longer than necessary to come together again as a full community.

This year, we will be excited to be able to offer our full High Holy Day worship opportunities both in-person and via live stream. We know that there are members of our community who cannot come in person due to health issues or distance, and so we are grateful that technology and Judaism have evolved to allow for members to be with us from afar and join in all we do. In addition, we know that so many of you are looking forward to being back in person for these important days on our calendar. While we are grateful to have heard that last year's streamed services were meaningful and beautiful, we know that being present adds another layer of power to the days. From the bima, I can also tell you that having the congregation present adds a level of energy and immediacy that are all important parts of the prayer experience. If you can be with us in person this year, we'd love to see you!

The High Holy Day calendar can be found on page 3 of this edition of the Voice. As we approach these extremely on-time High Holy Days, let me preemptively thank the members of our Ritual Committee and our High Holy Day subcommittee who put in so many hours and days to ensure that everything is taken care of, from ticket distribution to assigning honors, and everything in between and around that is needed. We cannot do it without our dedicated volunteers. In addition, our many participants, readers, shofar blowers, our choir and musicians who put in time over the summer preparing and practicing so that our services are truly our community. How wonderful it will be to have everyone together again, whether live or pre-recorded.

It is an old custom not to wear white after Labor Day. It's an even older custom to wear white on the High Holy Days. This year, as these two days on our two calendars coincide, let us think about the meaning of opportunities for gathering, and let us give thanks that we have the opportunity to come together to ring in 5782. We were apart as we welcomed 5781. The calendar calls us to not spend more time apart than absolutely necessary. Let us hear that call and gather together once again at our Beit Knesset, our house of gathering, to celebrate these sacred days of assembly.

Wishing you and your family a Shanah Tovah u'Metukah! A Sweet and Happy New Year!

NOTES FROM OUR CANTOR

New beginnings are upon us at TBT! As I write this in July, we are welcoming Sheryl Gordon as our new Religious School Director and Eileen Schneyman as our new Executive Director. Our new President, Dee Greenberg, our Board, and our committees are working hard with all of us to bring everyone up to speed over the summer as we work through these transitions and prepare for the High Holy Days around the corner. We are upgrading our Sanctuary, Social Hall, and Kiddush Lounge with state-of-the-art retractable screens this summer along with other improvements throughout the building. What makes this extra “new?” As the vaccination rates reach a comfortable rate, we are also navigating the re-opening of our congregation to normal gatherings, including those extra on-time High Holy Days!

Reopening the Sanctuary to those who are ready to be together again is a wonderful thing. Our Reopening Task Force met throughout this year, determining the safety of our community gatherings. Many thanks to them for helping us navigate this most unusual and difficult year we just experienced. With our new technology, we will not merely go back to “the way it was.” Instead, we are reimagining the way we connect with each other to include multi-access Judaism. Our congregation has increased to include those who live a distance away and those who are homebound. We have learned that everyone can experience our TBT community with a bit of help from tech! For services, it means that those in the Sanctuary will be able to see the same videos and images on the new screens that those at home enjoy.

The nature of the lingering pandemic also means that singers and shofar blowers are not yet able to sing together safely in close quarters. In a normal year our magnificent Adult Choir would have been rehearsing together weekly since the spring to be prepared for the High Holy Days. God willing, next year we will be able to do just that! Instead, with a series of intensive rehearsals this summer, our Choir is creating several videos of High Holy Day selections to be shared both on those new screens and on our stream for congregants either in the sanctuary or at home.

Likewise, our Shofar Choir will take on different formats this year. Among other things we are planning to return to Jones Beach after the 2nd Day Rosh Hashanah service for our Shofar Service and Tashlich.

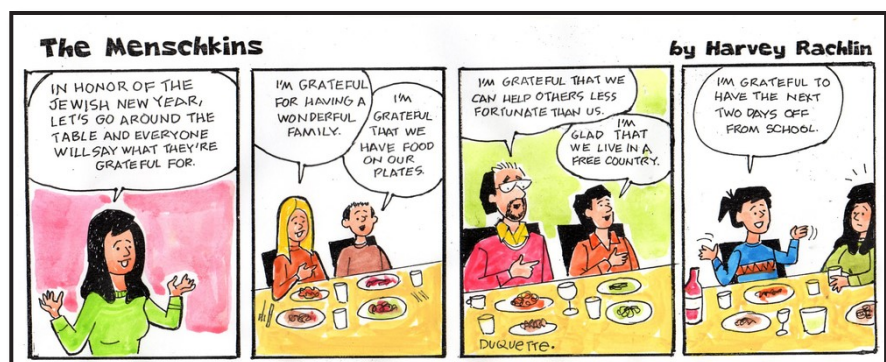

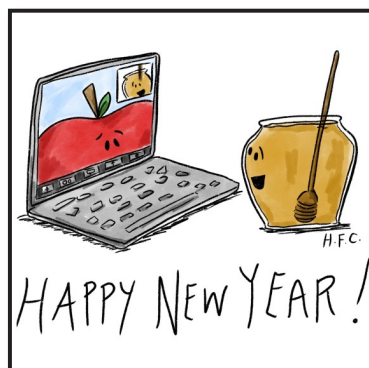

Finally, our TBT Chanting Corp., as always, is working on Torah and Haftarah readings for the High Holy Days. Using our new video tech, we will be able to include those chanters who cannot be with us in person; including our young adults who are either in college or live a distance away.

There is a buzz at Temple with all this excitement and “newness.” I am readying for this fall, looking forward to sharing this New Year with an extra dose of gratitude that we have made it through so much together, strengthened by our connections, our resilience, and our care for each other.

Sending blessings from my family to yours for good health and a very sweet New Year.

L'Shanah Tovah!

Cantor Rica Timman

My name is Erica, and I am currently an Honor Roll 8th grade student at Grand Avenue Middle School. I spend most of my time dancing at Platinum Performance Dance Academy, where I have been on the competition team for three years. I enjoy Jazz, Hip Hop, Lyrical and Acro forms of dance. In my spare time, I love to play basketball with my family, play Fortnite with friends and do Tik Tok dances. I am a compassionate friend who is always there to help others with a listening ear. I am thrilled to be a Donate 2 dance Ambassador, collecting and donating used costumes and dancewear for programs and dancers in need in NYC. I would like to thank Morah Emily Altman, Cantor Timman and Rabbi Bar-Nachum for all their help and guidance in preparing for my bat mitzvah.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As I write my first article I am thinking back to my childhood and when my family first joined Temple. Growing up in a Reform congregation in New Jersey, my life definitely revolved around temple activities. My parents were both active and as a matter of fact my 88 year old mom (she'll kill me for exposing her age) is still active so I had a great role model.

Temple is a way of life. It is a feeling of commitment and friendship, camaraderie and belonging. That is how I feel right now. I feel a part of something big, a part of something important. I feel we are working for the future of this temple and the Jewish religion.

As part of the speech I gave at Installation, I spoke about a 4-day virtual conference I attended, given by the Union for Reform Judaism for incoming temple presidents. It was wonderful. It was inspiring and energizing and it was great to meet other incoming presidents that I could brainstorm with.

At the end of the conference Rabbi Rick Jacobs, the URJ president spoke to all of us and said –“This has been an empowering 4 days and now I have one question to ask you all – “What made you say yes!” We all looked at each other on the screen and thought – hey wait, why did we say yes?

If I had not said yes, I would not have met so many new friends. If I sat back while others were active, I would have missed out on the connection that I have made to you and to this temple.

I am asking all of you to “Say Yes” with me. Say yes to meeting someone new, Say yes to becoming involved with whatever you are passionate about, Say yes as we continue to reinvent Temple B'nai Torah and say yes to doing great things together.

As the High Holidays are upon us and we pray together to be inscribed in the Book of Life we are being given a new start. How thankful are we that this year we have the option of praying together in person. What a difference a year makes. We are being given the chance to right any wrongs and move ahead. We all have good intentions and then life gets in the way – nobody is perfect. Let's look ahead together and work to achieve our goals. I am sure we won't always agree and that's OK – so let's talk openly, let's remember we are all on the same team and let's all say YES!

From my home to yours wishes for a Happy and Healthy New Year!

Shanah Tovah

See you in temple,

Dee

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Septembers always leave me with mixed feelings. I am thrilled to get back to a solid routine, but I don't want to leave behind the "lazy days of summer." This year, though, I am excited to leave the summer behind and begin my school year with Temple B'nai Torah. In addition, we get to celebrate the High Holy Days together, something we could barely foresee just a year ago.

Speaking of a year ago, we entered a school year not knowing what would happen, not knowing Zoom from Kahoot! and certainly not knowing if we would have the stamina to get through all of the challenges thrown our way. And yet, we survived, and dare I say it, even thrived. Our students adapted to a confusing schedule while our teachers mastered the art of teaching to a classroom and a computer screen.

I am beginning my tenure here at Temple B'nai Torah with a sense of awe. I am struck, not by what our students didn't learn this past year, but for what they did learn. They learned that they are resilient, they learned that they can pivot, and most importantly, they learned that success is not measured solely on grades but on being present. I hope to bring into this year a renewed sense of optimism. This will not be a year of "What didn't we do," but a year of "What do we get to do." We will make up for lost time, to be sure, but we will take the time to celebrate milestones in a way that we couldn't last year. We will have plenty of time to play catch up, but more importantly, we will have time for check-in. I expect each student, each staff member, each parent and congregant, to show off what they gained in the past year, not what they lost. I gained a new job, a new place to share my love of Judaism, a place to watch young minds grow and succeed.

What did you gain? What will you bring with you this year? Please feel free to come into my office to tell me what special skill you acquired, and what you are grateful for this year. And if your sourdough worked, please share your secret.

Wishing you a wonderful New Year, a year of beginnings, of gratitude, of health, and happiness.

Please watch your email for important information about High Holiday Programming, First Days of School events, as well as everything you will need to know about an exciting school year at TBT.

SISTERHOOD

Hello all! I am honored to be the next Sisterhood President. I follow in the footsteps of many other remarkable women who have led Sisterhood through both good and challenging times.

There has been no doubt that the past few years have been a bit of a challenge but like a butterfly emerging from its cocoon, we are emerging stronger and more beautiful.

We, as a Sisterhood and a temple community, have been through a merger and a pandemic, and what was standard operating procedure doesn't always translate in this almost post-pandemic world. The events of the past couple of years have left an indelible mark on all of us. We have learned that when we all lift each other up, support each other, and work together, we are stronger and we can do anything. The fact that we as a community have been able to have mitzvahs, services, and programs all during the pandemic is a testament to the hard work and vision of our community.

Sisterhood strives to be a welcoming place for all the women of TBT. If you have not yet joined or have let your membership lapse, I encourage you to join. We have a calendar full of fun and educational programs and fundraisers. I look forward to seeing you all in person!

Yours in Sisterhood,
Maryann

BROTHERHOOD / MEN'S CLUB

Hello Congregants,

My name is Eric Altman and I am the new President of the Brotherhood/Men's Club. I hope everyone enjoyed the summer, and as life is slowly getting back to normal, I am glad we will be able to hang out with friends and family.

Brotherhood has great things in store for this coming year. We coordinated ushering for the High Holidays which will be a nice breathe of fresh air for everyone coming to the Temple. It will be awesome being able to pray with friends and family.

I am anticipating great things this year like our traditional Sunday breakfasts starting in October and monthly dinners (some with exciting programs). We are also looking forward to our (free) October Paid-Up Membership Dinner for those members who have joined Brotherhood in 2021-2022. If you are not a member and you are interested, please sign up so you can enjoy the dinners and the company. It's a great experience to make new friends and reacquaint with old ones.

Being a part of Brotherhood also means we have the honor of putting up and taking down the Sukkah, and decorating the outside of it. We are also looking for help from the members to assist.

Sincerely yours,

Eric Altman

President TBT Brotherhood/Men's Club

Selichot... Prayers for Forgiveness

Selichot - special prayers for forgiveness - are added to the liturgy during the month of Elul as the High Holy Days approach. Selichot prayers call out to God for forgiveness. The Selichot service is traditionally held on the Saturday evening before Rosh Hashanah in order to give people a chance to reflect on the changes of behavior that they wish to make. The service is held late in the evening when, it is said, the heavens are especially open to our prayers, and God will hear our prayers most clearly.

Temple B'nai Torah
invites you to join us

SATURDAY, AUGUST 28, 2021

7 pm - Dairy Dinner*

8 pm - Program

“Communities in Times of Difficulty: Tales from the Talmud”

5781 has been a trying year. We began it socially distanced from one another, and we end it with uncertainty as the COVID pandemic rages on. What does our tradition have to teach us about dealing with difficult circumstances? What did our ancestors do when plagues and disaster - natural and manmade - came knocking? Together we'll spend time learning and discussing select narratives found in the Talmud that deal with difficult times and the righteous community members who helped their communities through them. We'll ponder what it means to be righteous today compared to 1,500 years ago and learn a little bit about the role of miracles in our lives. All texts will be provided in English and no prior knowledge is necessary.

9 pm - An Inspiring Late Night Prayer Service

NO COST — R.S.V.P. Required for DINNER ONLY*

~~ Due to COVID protocol, no one will be admitted without a reservation ~~

Email your reservation to Nadine Salzman, bstcls512@aol.com, or drop your tear off (below), with list of names, at the Temple office by August 19th.

 Important Note:

While we are joyful in once again being together in person, we strive to achieve this and meet our congregants' comfort level in the safest manner possible.

With that in mind:

For our dinner, food will be arranged on each table set for 10-12. If you wish to reserve a table of specific persons, we require the names in writing, of those to be seated, at the time of reservation. Others will be seated randomly where space allows, depending on the number in their party.

OUR COMMUNITY

Temple B'nai Torah is thrilled to welcome Eileen Schneyman as Executive Director of our synagogue. Eileen has worked in Jewish Communal Service for her entire career and is looking forward to being here for her next adventure.

Eileen is a Long Island native, who received her Masters in Social Work from Adelphi University and is licensed to practice in New York. Her experience includes working with children of all ages, teens, stepfamilies, single adults (divorce and bereavement), those who are unemployed, senior adults and children with special needs. Having worked with so many different populations will serve her well here at TBT. Her Jewish Communal experience includes working at the Mid-Island Y Jewish Community Center and the Suffolk Y Jewish Community Center, where she created and implemented programs for teens, children, seniors and summer camp. She was the founding director of the Butler Special Needs Center as well as the Director of the Suffolk site for Connect to Care. Eileen also has synagogue experience having been the Executive Director at Temple Chaverim where she had her hands in all aspects of synagogue life; including membership, facility and building management, staff supervision, office administration and grant writing. Most recently she was the interim Director of a Day Care Center site for the Friedberg JCC in Merrick where hugs from the children were the highlight of her day!

Eileen has also been active in professional organizations such as the Association of Jewish Center Professionals (serving on the Executive Board and as Conference Chair, and being awarded the Atide Award in 1997 for one who has demonstrated new leadership and talent through program achievement); and NATA (National Association for Temple Administration) where she was the Long Island Cohort Coordinator from 2015 - 2020 and has served as Partner Chairperson for the past 3 conferences. Eileen has completed 6 courses towards her Certificate in Temple Administration (Senior Member). She has also served on the Boards of her synagogue and the Music Association of Plainview-Old Bethpage, and volunteers for NYSSMA All-County Music Festival, the Tilles Center and the Soup Group at the Farmingdale United Methodist Church.

Eileen has had the good fortune to travel to Israel several times, including chaperoning a 6-week teen tour and leading a group of educators/JCC staff for Partnership 2000. Eileen is passionate about music and reading, and loves to needlepoint, cross stitch and rubber stamp. She is most proud of her twin daughters, Alyssa a school librarian (who has taught Religious School here at TBT) and Nicole a middle school special ed teacher. Stop by the office and introduce yourself. She is looking forward to meeting you.

CHAI CLUB

We are so grateful that very soon we will all be back in the Temple to observe Yom Kippur and celebrate the coming of the New Year. Joan and I thank everyone who joined us last year, as the membership has gone over 180 people! We know these are trying times and the Chai Club appreciates your support. Thank you to the entire Chai Club Board and the Membership Committee: Harvey Drucker, Tessa Kean, Jayne Kromprier, Sarita Keyser, Sharon and Ben Cernese for working so diligently.

As one of the largest senior groups in Reform Judaism, the Chai Club membership is open to anyone who has been a member of a Temple for 18 (Chai) years or more, or is at least 50 years old, or is married to someone who meets these requirements. Dues are $18 per person per year, and only $5 if you live more than 50 miles from the Temple. If you have not done so, please mail your Chai Club dues to the temple today.

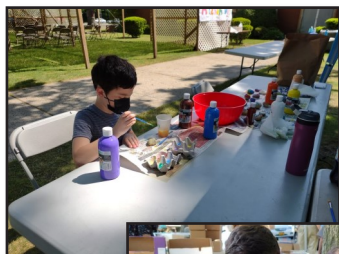

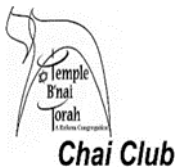

We are pleased to announce that we will once again have our annual membership dinner, November 15th, at a restaurant to be named later. Besides our annual membership dinner, we are planning theatre/dinner parties, musical and educational experiences, social action projects, and will share the important events in our lives with fellow members. Because of this camaraderie, we are very proud to be helping Temple “membership retention.”

During July and August, your Chai Club board has been working with the Temple Re-opening committee setting up programs for the first quarter of the temple year. We want to be sure that we are all on the same schedule as the Temple reopens. We are happy to report that we have invited back the noted Paul Joseph Jazz Trio to appear “In-Temple,” Monday, October 4th at 7:30pm. We will be entertained by their Gershwin Jazz program with favorites such as “Rhapsody in Blue,” “Summertime,” “Embraceable You” and others. In addition, we will have one more Summer ZOOM program by H & H Scholars; August 30 at 7:30 from the comfort of your home for the, Robert Moses Program - NY Infrastructure Builder: Hero or Villain? Please see the flyer on page 16 for further details.

We hope you and your extended families enjoy the High Holy days and have an easy fast.

Social Action/Social Justice Committee

TBT's Social Action/Social Justice Committee wishes you all a Happy, Healthy, Peaceful and Meaningful New Year!

Since our last issue of the Voice, we hosted an important and informative presentation by Mom's Demand Action and their BeSmart program. BeSmart addresses Gun Violence Prevention in a commonsense, practical way. It offers parents and grandparents the tools needed to have important conversations concerning gun ownership and safe storage, and raises awareness of gun ownership issues at the local level. We are most grateful to Janet Goldstein for bringing the program to us. If you were unable to attend, we may be able to provide a link to other BeSmart presentations that are coming up. Let us know if you want info.

Over the summer, SA/SJ again organized a School Supplies Collection. Thanks to the generosity of our congregation, many students will be able to start school confident they are prepared for their class and homework assignments.

As we prepare for the building's eventual full re-opening, our TEVA committee (Temple Environmental Vision and Action) has begun meeting again to explore TBT's environmental practices and to make recommendations for environmentally responsible and sustainable practices.

This month we are holding our Annual High Holiday Food Drive. Despite many re-openings and opportunities for people to return to work, pantries continue to find it difficult to keep up with the food needs of our neighbors here on Long Island. Let's do what we can do to help. See the flyer in this issue of the Voice for details.

The Garden at TBT is now over a year old and continues to grow. As of this writing, we have already tripled the amount of produce donated at this time last year and have increased the number of recipient agencies receiving that produce. Our Garden Volunteers have much to be proud of! Please do not hesitate to let Rabbi Bar-Nahum know, if due to financial difficulties, you are in need of fresh produce. The information will be kept strictly confidential and you will be able to receive periodic deliveries of harvested items. Come visit and follow us on our Facebook page, The Garden at TBT, to learn about what we are up to. Some congregants have asked how they can donate to the garden. There are a few ways: 1) ask about any items on our "wish list", 2) monetary donations are always appreciated and should be made out to Temple B'nai Torah with SA/SJ Garden in the memo, 3) donate your time by volunteering at the garden (a "green thumb" or "good back" is not required.) Thank you for your interest and support.

Last year we co-sponsored, along with a variety of other faith-based groups on Long Island, an on-line presentation by Integrity First for America. We learned about IFA's groundbreaking federal lawsuit against the neo-Nazis, white supremacists, and hate groups responsible for the Charlottesville violence and which was scheduled to come to trial last October. That trial will finally be held in a few months. This year, IFA has already won recent judgements such as sanctions against the National Socialist Movement (NSM) for ignoring court orders and concealing/destroying evidence. Anti-Semitism and Hate Crimes continue to plague our country and will be among the committee's themes in the coming year.

Our next meeting will be on Sept. 21 at 7:00 p.m. The TEVA meeting will follow at 8:00 p.m.

We always welcome new members! For information about the Social Action/Social Justice Committee, the Garden at TBT, TEVA, or any of our projects, contact Rona Kauffman at ronakauffman@yahoo.com

CIRCLE OF FRIENDS

Welcome to a new year. Circle of Friends is a group of Temple members – singles as well as couples - who enjoy each other’s company in purely social settings. We love to eat together, travel together, explore together, and have fun together – the way that friends should and do! Membership Dues - $18 pp.

Pictures of our first event of the 2021-2022 Temple calendar year:

We are a growing group of members who realize that life sometimes throws us curves but no matter what our status – single or couple (married or not), young or not-so-young, Jewish or not – we need our Circle of Friends.

This year, obviously, has not been normal. Hopefully this finds you and yours in good health. In these trying times, we are all looking for the human “touch” – even if that has come to mean different things today. We have been and will continue to do our activities on Zoom for the safety and convenience of our members. Psychologists say that people need people. We have instituted a weekly Zoom event on Monday afternoons. These events give our friends the opportunity to see one another and to talk about anything on their minds. In addition, we have been engaging in Trivia or fun “Space” & jokes or any other fun ideas that our friends recommend. Come check us out. These Zoom gatherings are FREE!

In addition, we have started to have events outside and eventually, in the Temple. Look for our flyers and emails for all our terrific events – Game Night, Apple picking, Chanukah party, Bowling party & dinner, Military Bridge, Miniature Golf, and more!

We wish everyone a happy and healthy New Year.

L’shanah tova!

PTA UPDATES

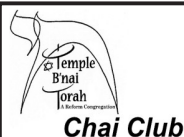

September update from the PTA!
By Rachel Minkowsky

Baruchim haba'im everyone! September is an exciting time for everyone; children and teachers are going back to their classrooms, Hebrew school begins, and this year, the High Holidays are here early, too! This year's in-person New Year celebrations are exceptionally sweet.

The TBT PTA exists to support all our Hebrew School teaching staff, students and of course, their families. Look out for all our upcoming events in the monthly edition of the Voice! We're kicking off the upcoming school year with our Sleepwear in the Sukkah. This event is geared towards our youngest congregants. Pizza, Prayer, and Pajamas. Havdalah is back for our older children. Need a grownup night out? The PTA will be hosting a new "Paint and Pour" craft and wine tasting event. Our Hanukkah Brunch will be back and in-person as well!

We need YOU to make all these events a success! PTA membership forms are available in the office. We're always looking for volunteers. Help organize a single event, meet new friends, and get involved! We're looking forward to meeting you.

Our speakers are Harvey Sackowitz and Howard Ehrlich, two retired college professors collectively known as H & H Scholars.

A Conversation With...

Sarah Hurwitz

After a decade as a political speechwriter for leaders like Hillary Clinton and President Barack Obama and as head speechwriter for First Lady Michelle Obama, Sarah Hurwitz decided to apply her skills as a communicator to writing a book...about Judaism.

Hurwitz was the quintessential lapsed Jew - until age thirty-six when she attended a beginner's class on Judaism. Attending on a whim, she found beautiful rituals, helpful guidance on living an ethical life, and new conceptions of God. None of what discovered had she learned in Hebrew school or during the two synagogue services she grudgingly attended each year. That class led to a challenging, moving - and ultimately life-transforming - journey.

Hurwitz is on a mission to share the profound insights she discovered in studying Jewish law, history, spirituality, and ethics. She has gained access to vast troves of wisdom on everything from holidays, rituals, and prayer to Jewish conceptions of God, death, and social justice. In this entertaining and accessible book, she shows us why Judaism matters and how its message is more relevant than ever, and she inspires Jews to do the learning, questioning, and debating required to make this religion their own.

Wishing you a Good & Sweet Year
