INSPIRATION FROM OUR RABBI

Welcoming Our New Neighbors

The idea of neighborliness is inherent in Judaism. The most important of the commandments, according to the sage Rabbi Akiva, is to love our neighbors as ourselves, as we are taught in Leviticus. Jewish Law codifies the rules of building so that neighbors' dwellings allow for the appropriate balance of connection and privacy. We are taught to help our neighbors if they or their animals need, and to challenge our neighbors with reproof, if they need that. In short, our tradition understands that neighbors are a part of our daily lives, and therefore, gives us some direction for how to interact with them.

I have all of this in mind as I share with you exciting news about new neighbors for us here at TBT! You may have noticed that there has been some work going on at the small church that sits across Oakfield from TBT. Many trees have been cleared from the lot, and there have been workers inside the small facility. A few months ago, we heard rumors that a group had bought the church property but could not find any information about it.

Fast forward to the beginning of March when on Friday the 4th, our Executive Director Eileen and I noticed that there was some work going on at the building and decided this would be a good opportunity to go meet our new neighbors and introduce ourselves to them. Eileen and I went over with our cards hoping to shake a hand and learn who our new neighbors were. What we didn't expect, was that March 4 would be the first day that our new neighbors were coming together to pray in their brand-new mosque.

To say that the new mosque's members were moved by our presence is an understatement! What was to be a short hello blossomed into our being welcomed for their first ever prayer service as a new community. We were invited to introduce ourselves to the small number who had gathered, and shared brief remarks of welcome and salaam. On our way out, we were laden with gifts of food to take with us. They refused to let us go away empty handed! In return, we then delivered them a special Shalach Manot bag as is our custom at Purim.

The renovated interior is beautiful, with newly stained and polished wood, carpets that help line the members up for prayer in the appropriate direction, and golden models of sacred sites. Our new neighbors are Shia Muslim, primarily from Pakistan. This means that they are a minority in their own nation since Pakistan is majority Sunni Muslim. The differences in Muslim sects stem from ancient disagreements about who was to take over after the Prophet Muhammed's death. As we observed the small prayer gathering, we listened to the words of the Imam, their prayer leader, as he described Islam as being against violence and for peace.

Our neighbors were indeed touched that we made the effort to come by and say hello. They mentioned that they had hoped to stop by to say hello themselves, but that they had been so busy getting ready. Their desire to get their mosque ready makes sense looking at the calendar. This month, on April 2, we will welcome the new month of Nissan. In Exodus, God tells us Nissan shall be the first of the months, since it is in this month of Passover and therefore the month of redemption. This year, the Hebrew month of Nissan corresponds with Ramadan, the Muslim holy month of fasting from sunrise to sunset and prayer. This means we will expect to see additional traffic to the mosque throughout April, especially on Fridays and after sunset. Both of our communities will be celebrating major holidays in April. Noting that Easter also falls in the midst of this month means that all the children of Abraham will be celebrating important moments of faith in short succession.

We are very excited to begin a little corner of co-existence here on the Bellmore/Wantagh border! We will look forward in the coming months to many more conversations about how our two communities can work together and share resources. We are hopeful that what began with a small gesture of neighborliness can grow into our two communities working together in many ways. We will never agree on everything, but complete agreement is never a prerequisite for being a good neighbor. What is? Kindness, compassion, empathy, and spreading God's peace.

May we have occasion to demonstrate all of these and more as we seek to foster a neighborly relationship between our two communities.

L'Shalom,
Rabbi Daniel Bar-Nahum

NOTES FROM OUR CANTOR

Pesach is around the corner (beginning Friday night, April 15th), and chances are that many of us are focused on planning the Seder meal, busy prepping our kitchens for a week of freedom from chametz, gathering recipes, shopping and stocking up on Passover pantry items. Haggadot are pulled off the shelf, and a beloved elder is lined up to lead the Seder. This year, we are especially excited that we can gather again, hopeful that our Covid plague has passed us over.

Traditions are handed down from generation to generation through the years. They help root us in our place in Jewish history. Gathering for the Seder meal and reading the Haggadah is a unique family tradition connecting the generations. The Haggadah reminds us that we are to tell the story of the Exodus each year to our children.

Pesach is the only festival we celebrate around our own dinner tables instead of at Temple. However, here at TBT, we have wonderful opportunities to prepare, renew, and celebrate Pesach with our congregational family. As the pandemic seems to be retreating, and as we watch brave Ukrainians fight for their country, it is particularly significant to be able to gather and acknowledge some of the important themes of Pesach; rebirth, renewal, social justice, and especially the celebration of our freedoms.

In anticipation of our festival please consider joining us at Temple for our Sisterhood Women's Seder or Brotherhood Men's Seder on Tuesday, April 12th. And then join us for the second night of Pesach for our Community Seder on Saturday, April 16st. RSVP deadlines are approaching so please look for our flyers to register.

During Religious School this month, our students will be learning both traditional and new songs for the Seder table. They will come home ready to participate and add to the Seder! I love helping our children deepen their Pesach experience by adding some of the many contemporary settings our movement offers.

As Pesach reminds us of the rebirth of our people and of the land, may our celebrations also be renewed with a modern telling of our redemption, inspiring the next generation and bringing new layers of tradition and meaning to our family celebrations.

Wishing you and yours a Chag Sameach!

Cantor Rica Timman

Hi! My name is Addison Gottlieb. I am a seventh grader at Wantagh Middle School. I love to dance, play soccer, lacrosse, and volleyball. In my free time I enjoy being with my friends and family.

A special thank you to Mrs. Baram for teaching me how to read Hebrew during the pandemic. I also want to thank Mrs. Altman, Mrs. Derwin, Cantor Timman, and Rabbi Bar-Nahum for all of their help preparing me for my Bat Mitzvah. ## PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A little Passover story from the American Jewish World Service...

*In the town of Plink, there was no water to drink.
Not a drop came out of the kitchen sink.
A storm had come and before you could blink
The water pipes broke in the town of Plink.
What could they do? What do you think?
One girl said, "We need to work together
To rebuild the pipes that broke in bad weather.
We all must learn to help one another
Not just our own parents or sisters and brothers.
If we cooperate, we can do something good.
We can bring back the water to our neighborhood.
And that's what they did.
The young girl led the way.
They fixed those pipes the very next day.
They worked together, without any fight,
Fixing what was broken, making it right.
At the Passover Seder, we can all think
How lucky we are to have so much to drink.
Before each of the four cups of wine we pour
We can think about people who need so much more.
Like the people of Plink, we want to do what is right—
That's what WE celebrate on Passover night.*

Wishing you, your family and friends a Passover with full cups, loved ones close by, continued traditions, and prayers for those who need it most. Here at TBT we have worked together making things right, maintaining our neighborhood. We will never be thirsty!

A Zissen Pesach to you all,
Dee Greenberg, President

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The Torah portions over the next few weeks, Tazria, Metsora, and Acharei Mot, spend a lot of time talking about rules and laws pertaining to those afflicted with disease. I don't know about you, but I am certainly tired of talking about diseases, quarantines, and who can and cannot be let back in the village. But I also notice that talking about diseases has become commonplace. We speak of COVID with a matter-of-fact tone, which is vastly different from how it began. We no longer shudder at the thought of it, heaven forbid someone find out you had it, or worse, spread it. But what is most important is the lesson of redemption. While we no longer perform sacrifices, there's something to be said about the separation from the ailment and to a return to normalcy.

I think about how the Torah has given me the tools to mark the day after the quarantine has been lifted. A more modern twist would be crossing the threshold of your own home and entering the supermarket, or, *gasp* the diner. And it's over. Like the offering of sacrifices, it's not mentioned again. You don't dwell on the affliction, you just go back to life as normal.

This month, we will all gather for Passover, something many of us have not done for 2 years. When you sit at your seder table, take a moment to realize that we have come out of the desert, we have crossed the Red Sea unscathed. Many of us have been afflicted, but we are all welcome back to the community.

I wish you a Zissen Pesach, a Passover filled with family, friends, food, and above all, a lack of disease.

L'Shalom,

Sheryl Gordon,
Religious School Director

BROTHERHOOD

Hello my fellow congregants,

Let's start off by saying spring is around the corner. I can't wait to scrap my winter clothes.

I hope everyone enjoyed Rhonda Denet, the singer who joined the Brotherhood's ZOOM dinner on February 23rd. I heard from a lot of people, and they had a great time. Brotherhood had another Texas Hold-em tournament and all had a good time. The Brotherhood breakfast had a good turnout. The more people we get, the merrier it is.

Our Brotherhood dinner on March 23rd was a great success, and we had a nice turnout.

The Seder dinner will take place on April 12th with Rabbi Bar-Nahum officiating.

Sincerely,

Eric Altman

Brotherhood/Men's Club President

Social Action/Social Justice Committee

We wish you all a Happy, Healthy and Inspiring Passover! Passover incorporates many social action and social justice related themes. If you are interested in including some new ones in your observances this year, check out Reform Judaism's <https://www.reformjudaism.org/jewish-holidays/passover/passover-social-action-guide>, HIAS' <https://www.hias.org/passover> or American Jewish World Service's <https://ajws.org/who-we-are/resources/holiday-resources/passover/global-justice-haggadah/> for ideas.

Last month we joined with congregations nationwide in observing HIAS' National Refugee Shabbat. Our clergy offered a family- friendly look at what it means to leave your home and have to resettle in a new country. It highlighted how welcoming the stranger can transform tragic experiences into ones of acceptance, security and hope. Thank you to all who planned the inspiring service and to all who participated. We also provided resources for our adult congregants who wanted to learn more about the challenges facing refugees and asylum seekers. We hope that you found some resources that were instructive, and that you were inspired to continue to learn about these issues and advocate for those who continue to be in great need. As of this writing, Afghan refugees, whose lives were in danger in Afghanistan, were still in the process of being resettled, and then Russia invaded Ukraine, leading to the rapid displacement over 1,000,000 people. We also did not know how or when this tragedy was going to end. Hopefully, by the time this article is read, there will be peace in Ukraine and people will have been able to return to their homes. If not, let us not forget that we too were once strangers, and find ways to assist and welcome those who come here seeking safety.

The theme for Earth Day 2022 - April 22 is Invest in Our Planet. It will take a concerted effort on everyone's part - government, businesses and individuals - to do whatever we can to improve the state of our planet. RAC-NY (<https://rac.org/take-action/rac-your-state/rac-ny>) has recently launched its Climate Covenant: A RAC-NY Campaign to Combat Climate Change. They urge Reform Jews to join with others across lines of race, faith, and class in joint action to end our dependence on fossil fuels and stop climate change. TBT also has opportunities for you to participate in the effort to Invest in Our Planet. Purchase SA/SJ's reusable metal water bottles and help reduce the use of single use plastics, support TBT's efforts to install a water bottle filling station, purchase insulated bags from Sisterhood and reduce the need for of single use bags. Follow legislative initiatives and become involved in the decision making whenever possible. Invest your time and energy in the Garden at TBT and become a volunteer. Encourage your workplaces to take on more environmentally sustainable and responsible practices. Visit <https://www.earthday.org/earth-day-2022/> for more information.

SAVE THE DATE! Mitzvah Day is Sunday, May 22. As of this writing, things are looking good for an in-person Mitzvah Day. We will have some "old favorite" activities as well as some new ones, so please clear your calendars to allow you to be with us and to participate in this celebration of the year-long work we do at TBT in the service of Tikkun Olam.

Other ongoing social action activities at TBT: Sisterhood's sanitary supplies for women, Brotherhood's eyeglass collection (Lion's club) and personal care items (Adopt-A-Battalion); Chai Club's continuing kosher food collection for the kosher pantry at Congregation Beth Ohr (all non-kosher food received will be distributed to local food pantries), SA/SJ collection of magazines and puzzles for the residents of the Meadowbrook Care Center.

Your input is always welcome and there is an open invitation to join the Social Action/Social Justice committee. Our next SA/SJ meeting is April 19 at 7-9pm. For information about the Social Action/Social Justice Committee, TEVA, or any of our projects contact Rona Kauffman at ronakauffman@yahoo.com.

PTA UPDATES

Hello from the PTA!
By Rachel Minkowsky

Spring has sprung!

The TBT PTA is still here for everyone, too. Our PTA exists to support the Hebrew school teaching staff and all our students. It's a place to meet other families like yours, ask questions, and learn new things. Membership is critical to our continued success. All proceeds go directly to programming and materials for all our religious school children. Get involved today! Our Zoom meeting links are posted in the temple calendar and on Facebook.

Our in-person Family Bingo event was a huge hit! Attendees had a lot of fun. Thank you to Wendy Shatz and committee for your dedication and hard work!

Stay tuned for Mitzvah Day flyers! The PTA has several ways to help get involved with meaningful causes. We look forward to celebrating together!

YOUTH GROUP

Please allow me to introduce myself. I am Mark Derwin, and I am the new Youth Director. Over the past years, I have been the advisor at Temple Isaiah of Stony Brook, Temple Emanu-El of East Meadow and Temple Beth Am of Merrick. I was very active in NFTY / LIFTY and spent many summers at Eisner Camp. I am so excited to be part of the Temple B'nai Torah family.

Temple B'nai Torah has three amazing Youth Groups:

- BNTY - for grades 9 – 12, led by President Sam Darr
- BNTY Jr - for grades 7 – 8
- MNTY - for grades 5 -6

I've set up email lists for each group. If you are not getting emails from me, please send me a note at MDerwin@TBTWantagh.org. Besides email, monthly events are posted on the bulletin board outside the school office and on the TBT Youth Activities Facebook page.

March was a very busy month with both the Purim carnival and BNTY Shabbat. The kids that ran these events are amazing and full of energy. I also want to thank the members of BNTY Jr that helped with setting up and running the carnival.

My goal is to encourage all eligible Temple members to come to youth group meetings. If you have an idea for a meeting or an event, just let me know. I look forward to getting to know you all.

Thank You,

Mark Derwin
Youth Director

OUR COMMUNITY

Dear Temple B'nai Torah Family,

To help us get to know each other better, the Membership Committee is spotlighting a different congregant each month. Our goal is to tell you things you might otherwise never know. We hope this will be an exciting way to learn more about each other!

For our April Spotlight Interview, we present...

Rona and Bob Kauffman

When you open your copy of The TBT VOICE or mailed flyers from Temple, you will inevitably see a page full of information and updates from the Social Action/Social Justice Committee (SA/SJ), headed by Rona Kauffman. You might be learning about upcoming collections for food, clothing or school supplies, Civic Engagement information or updates from the League of Woman Voters. Have you visited the TBT Garden? Bringing a giving garden to TBT was the vision of Rona, her husband Bob, members of BNTY and Rabbi Bar-Nahum. Rabbi has provided a great deal of inspiration, guidance and support to all SA/SJ projects.

Rona and Bob met at Queens College in the Psychology Lab. Bob came to the lab to visit his friend while Rona and her group ran learning experiments. Bob graduated with a degree in English, becoming an English teacher. He later earned a degree at Adelphi as a Reading Teacher. Rona graduated with a degree in Psychology and continued her education at Queens College, earning a Master's Degree in School Psychology. She then completed her Doctoral Degree in Counseling Psychology at NYU. Rona worked for 40 years at The Lowell High School in Flushing, a non-profit special education high school providing educational and support services to special needs students. Bob worked for 40 years for the Board of Education at Jamaica Queens' GED High School program. Both Rona and Bob are now retired. After 42 years of marriage, happiness for them is being together, taking long quiet walks, getting out on a quiet lake in their canoes and enjoying the great outdoors.

Rona and Bob joined Temple Emanu-El when their son, Michael, was in first grade. They felt it was important for their son to be in Hebrew School, being one of just a few Jewish children at his public school. They both wanted their son to have a Jewish education. Rona had worked with Helen Green (of blessed memory) who encouraged Rona to Join TEEM. Before they were married, they both were members of different synagogues.

Rona and Bob became involved with TEEM's show production when their son, Michael, joined the cast. They both appreciated the show for its "intergenerational experience" and feel that the Temple show "helped raise Michael." Rona and Bob got involved behind the scenes, Bob helping with building sets and "doing whatever was needed." Michael is now the Technical Director at the Argyle Theater in Babylon and teaches Theater Tech at a local college. His interest was sparked by his theatre experiences at Temple Emanu-El and Bard College.

Rona joined TEEM's Sisterhood and served on the Sisterhood Board. She later served on the Sisterhood and Temple Nominating committees as well as on the Temple Board. Bob stayed in the "background" but continued to help in any way he could. Rona became involved with Social Action at TEEM and after a few years, became the Co-Chair of the committee. Her commitment has never faltered.

Rona had decided that she wanted to become an adult Bat Mitzvah. She completed her studies and read Torah at her B'nai Mitzvah on 01/02/2010, along with a group of 12 others.

Bob enjoys cycling, riding up to 3 times a week, and between 30-100 miles each time he goes out! For the past 10 years, Bob has volunteered his time with the Long Island Greenbelt helping to maintain walking paths which stretch from the Massapequa Preserves to Cold Spring Harbor.

The Garden at TBT is a work of love and commitment for both Rona and Bob, which, they point out, could not exist without its faithful garden volunteers and "garden guru" Susan Salem. The Garden started with Rabbi Bar-Nahum's Lifelong Learning Course focusing on an interfaith exploration of scripture. This course was co-taught by Father Mark Genzler, then of St. Francis Episcopal Church in Bellmore. A successful community vegetable garden was thriving at his church. At that time, the SA/SJ Committee was looking for an activity for Mitzvah Day and

OUR COMMUNITY

Sukkot. Father Mark suggested they check out St. Francis' Garden. Not only did they get to arrange the SA/SJ activities, Rona and Bob became volunteers for the garden and worked there for over a year. When it became possible to start the Garden at TBT, Susan Salem and other St. Francis volunteers offered to help with the layout and implementation to get the Garden up and running. The volunteers have now been with the Garden for over two years, maintaining and improving it. Rona and Bob are always learning and the more they learn, the more they want to do for the Garden at TBT. This year, the Garden grew 975 pounds of produce. In total, 1,819 pounds of produce were donated with TBT's crops and a TBT partnership with Restoration Farm, an organic farm in Old Bethpage.

Besides their work at the Garden, Rona and Bob traveled to the border of Mexico in February 2020, to assist with asylum seeking immigrants. They traveled with a friend Martha "Marti" Michael and Rabbi Bar-Nahum. Their aim was to welcome strangers and to treat people in a humane way. They also went to bear witness to what was taking place and not just what was seen on television, to provide humanitarian aid to asylum seekers in the tent city, prepare food with World Kitchen and bring donated school supplies to children in the camps. The people being helped were inspiring. Both Rona and Bob shared that this was a truly profound, moving and uplifting experience. Rona felt that this volunteer trip was so important on so many levels. This trip, Rona shared, "really changed us."

Rona and Bob support "Grannies Respond," a grass roots organization which assists asylum seekers. This group meets the buses and provides the immigrants with much needed supplies as they travel to meet up with their sponsors at their new locations. The Kauffmans also support Team Brownsville, which is the organization they volunteered with at the Texas-Mexican border.

Rona and Bob volunteer at WFUV (the Voice of Fordham University radio station) and they enjoy attending folk festivals and jazz concerts. Continuing to learn and caring about others is what makes Rona and Bob who they are.

Temple provides Rona and Bob with a strong feeling of community. They both feel that there is a certain sense of "feeling at home and welcome." Through their SA/SJ Committee, Rona and Bob have experienced people working together for a purpose and a willingness to get things done in the Garden. Both Rona and Bob credit each other for their roles in getting the Garden up and running. Rona, with doing research and planning, and Bob with implementing Rona's visions. In this Garden, there is a sense of working together among members of all three Legacy congregations, with a true sense of "oneness." The local Boy Scouts are also very helpful in working with the committee to build, schlep and assist.

Rona and Bob's shared interests include hiking and kayaking on quiet waters, both locally and upstate and throughout the country. They enjoy canoeing in their lightweight canoes, explaining that being on the calm water is somewhat of a spiritual experience for them both. They have traveled to Israel with a group of congregants and the clergy from Temple Emanu-El, and have traveled throughout Europe, living on a houseboat with Rona's sister and brother-in-law, as well as boating along English canals. They have traveled back roads in Scotland, Italy, Peru, and experienced a 10-day musical tour through Ireland's pubs and hotels!

Their calm, gentle ways, they both explained, come from their parents with such advice as, "You get more flies with honey than vinegar," and "Don't do anything to anyone you would not want done to you." Aside from their shared love of travel, Bob loves working at his computer and Rona loves reading and, of course, their work at the Garden.

Rona and Bob bring calm, caring, community commitment, learning and sharing to a whole different and positive level.

CIRCLE OF FRIENDS

March was a busy month for Circle of Friends. We played Military Bridge – at the Temple – finally! A sizable group from our club had dinner and a very good time.

We also celebrated our membership with a luncheon at Wantagh Inn. Many thanks to Yolanda & Ira Friedman for all your hard work, and to Fran & Al Woods for the great karaoke.

In April, Circle of Friends will be joining the Chai Club at the 2nd Seder led by Cantor Timman on April 16. The next week we will join the entire congregation at the annual Temple Square Dance. Hope to see you there!

We have been doing, and will continue to do, ZOOM functions on Monday afternoons – one week is Trivia and Jokes and the next week is SPACE (our own version of Bingo). You are welcome to join us regardless of whether you are a member of C of F or not.

The Zoom information remains the same each week:

Brotherhood EYEGLOSS COLLECTION

Recycle your old, usable eyeglasses, reading glasses and sunglasses and help provide others with the gift of improved sight!

Refractive errors can be easily corrected with eyeglasses, yet millions living in low- and middle-income countries lack access to basic eye care services. The Lions Club has recognized the urgent need for corrective lenses and collect usable glasses in their communities to support the Lions Recycle for Sight Program.

Look for the collection box in the Temple lobby.

An Easy Mitzvah! You Can Donate Food from Caterers to Feed People on Long Island Who are Hungry!

Some follow-up information from Syd Mandelbaum's
Rock and Wrap it Up Presentation

Are you planning a catered event? Did you know that all edible, left-over food, prepared but not served, can be donated to local food pantries, so it can be used to feed people on Long Island who are struggling with food insecurity and hunger?

Once included in your catering contract, Rock and Wrap it Up can supply locations for the food to be delivered by the contractor. Food safety is the primary concern, so caterers must comply with strict safety compliance rules. So, instead of all that delicious, costly food going into the landfill, it will be used to feed our Long Island neighbors in need.

Do you have more questions? Here is a link to information about the Good Samaritan Act that protects individual donors and non-profits who donate food. Good Samaritan Act Provides Liability Protection For Food Donations.

For more information on how to set this up for your next catered event, contact Rock and Wrap It Up at 1-877-691-FOOD
