RABBI'S MESSAGE

Rabbi Daniel Bar-Nahum

Return Again

September has come and, after what I hope was an excellent summer for everyone, we are once again on the precipice of our new year. Later this month, we'll gather to celebrate Rosh HaShanah and usher in 5786! As we make our way through this last month of the Hebrew year, the month of Elul, our tradition asks us to look back and reflect on the year that has passed. For many, it was a year marked with simchas, as babies were named, students were called to Torah, and beloveds' unions consecrated. For others, it was a year marked with sorrows, as relationships ended and loved ones were buried and mourned. For most, our year was punctuated both by moments of joy and moments of sorrow. Moments of blessing and moments of curse.

The month of Elul asks us to return to the past, not to relitigate it, but to learn from how we lived it. The month of Elul asks us to return to the previous months, not to reopen wounds, but to ask ourselves if we lived up to our highest standards, and the standards that God sets for us. It should come as no surprise to any of us to find that there were moments, probably more than we are comfortable admitting, where we missed the mark. Over this month, as we reflect on these times, we engage our souls in the work of cheshbon hanefesh, literally, an accounting of our souls. This is a preliminary step to the deep work of teshuvah, of repentance, to which we are called during the Ten Days of Awe, beginning on Erev Rosh HaShanah on Monday, September 22 and culminating with the last shofar blast of Yom Kippur on October 2.

This month, we have a few opportunities for this work of cheshbon hanefesh leading to the work of teshuvah. On the evening of Saturday, September 13 we will gather for Selichot, prayers of forgiveness. (See page 9.) That evening, we will learn with Rabbi Poticha about how we hold each other up through the High Holy Days. After our dinner and learning, we will gather for the Selichot service, an overture to the High Holy Days, and an opportunity to formally welcome the melodies, the words, and the meaning of the season into our souls. We will offer prayers of atonement and ask for God's forgiveness.

The Torah readings that fall in this month of Elul also offer insight into what God asks of us, and an opportunity to engage in soul work. In particular, on Shabbat on September 20th, we will read from a portion called Nitzavim, from near the end of the book of Deuteronomy. This section is also the reading selected for Yom Kippur Morning in the Reform Movement (many congregations read the tale of the ancient Yom Kippur rituals). Nitzavim includes a primer for the process of repentance followed by God's highlighting the accessibility of Torah and God's messages.

In the first 10 verses of chapter 30 we read that God tells the people that in the future, they will sin and that then they will "return to the Eternal your God." (30:2) God tells the people that they and their children will heed God's commandments. God will then restore their fortunes. It's only after this vignette of return to God that we learn: "Surely, this instruction which I enjoin upon you this day is not too baffling for you, nor is it beyond reach." (30:11) God tells us that the Torah, what God asks of us, shouldn't require long journeys or sojourns to the heavens to understand. Instead, the Torah tells us it "is very close to you, in your mouth and in your heart, to do it." (30:14)

The juxtaposition of the story of return and God's revelation that Torah is not hard to find led classical commentator Rabbi Joseph Albo (Spain 15th-cen.) to conclude that Teshuvah must be very easy. Most of us know this not to be the case. Rabbi Shai Held explains the section from Nitzavim in a different way. "What is required in order for us to repent is not beyond our comprehension; although our resistance may be strong, the path is, in fact, known to us...repentance is doable. If we set our hearts to it, we can change who we are and re-engage more deeply with God. But doable and easy are decidedly not the same thing. Authentic repentance is doable, but it is far from easy." Rabbi Held's words probably resonate for most of us. We know what we have to do in this important time of year, and we know that doing it requires work, effort, and concentration.

Teshuvah is not easy, but we aren't expected to do it all at once. The gates of repentance are open now! We are called to start the accounting of our souls throughout the month of Elul and work our way through teshuvah during the High Holy Days. And when all is said and done, perhaps the world that will emerge will be one as God describes in Nitzavim, a world of togetherness, abundance, and blessing.

May it be so in 5786!

Wishing you and your family a Shanah Tovah u'Metukah! A sweet and joyous new year!

Rabbi Daniel Bar-Nahum

NOTES FROM OUR CANTOR

Cantor Rica Timman

As we prepare our hearts for the sacred journey of the High Holy Days, I write to you with profound gratitude and renewed spirit. This past summer, I was blessed with the opportunity to take a sabbatical in Italy—a gift made possible by your generosity, encouragement, and shared understanding of the value of sacred rest and learning. Thank you for trusting me with this time.

My journey through Italy was both personally and spiritually enriching. While I certainly soaked in the beauty of the art, architecture, and breathtaking landscapes, I also sought to engage deeply with the Jewish story woven into Italy's past and present. That journey took me into the heart of Jewish life—both vibrant and painful—within the ancient ghettos of Rome and Venice.

Walking through the Jewish Ghetto of Venice—the world's first official ghetto, established in 1516—I felt the echoes of centuries past. The beauty of the historic synagogues, nestled above the ground-floor shops and homes, stood in poignant contrast to the restrictions, isolation, and hardship imposed on the Jewish community for generations. In Rome, the experience was similarly moving. The Jewish Ghetto there, formed under Papal decree in 1555, remains home to a proud and enduring community. Visiting the Great Synagogue of Rome, the adjacent Jewish Museum, and touring the ancient cobblestone paths of the Ghetto, I encountered not only the richness of Italian Jewish ritual and culture, but also the pain of forced marginalization, deportations, and resistance.

Confronting the complicated, often painful history of antisemitism in these places was difficult—but necessary. It reminded me that our Jewish resilience is not born from ease, but from a deep, enduring commitment to identity, faith, and community. These experiences deepened my understanding of how our tradition has survived and thrived even in the face of prejudice, and how vital our work remains in ensuring dignity, safety, and justice for all people today.

Yet, alongside the sorrow, I also encountered beauty—traditions I had never heard before; stories of cultural preservation, and Jews in Italy today who are lovingly keeping their communities vibrant. I had the privilege of meeting with Jewish artisans in Siena, Venice, and Rome who are continuing to blend Italian Jewish traditions in their crafts. I look forward to sharing some of their stories and my experiences later this year in our Life Long Learning series.

I return home with a heart full of appreciation—for the strength of Jewish history, for the healing power of time and travel, and most of all, for this sacred community we continue to build together at TBT. I feel renewed in purpose and ready to step into this new year with you, in prayer, song, and reflection.

L'shanah tovah u'metukah—may this New Year bring sweetness, health, and deeper connection for us all.

With gratitude and harmony,

Cantor Rica Timman

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Welcome Back!!! I hope you had a rejuvenating summer. We've been busy planning for another wonderful year.

We've cleaned and organized, prepared class lists, and revamped our curriculum. We continue to have wonderful staff members who are looking forward to getting to the task of educating our students. This year, we will be implementing Google Classroom as a way for parents and teachers to be in communication with each other. We'll be piloting it in a few grades and will eventually roll it out for the whole school. This will allow us to share important assignments, keep track of Junior Congregation assignments, and give parents a more detailed understanding of the things we are working on.

Some important dates to know:

September 5, 2025: Back To Shul BBQ. See the flyer for details.

September 7, 2025: First Day K-6. Mandatory Parent Orientation. Please plan to stay for our Congregational Breakfast and Membership Engagement Fair.

September 8 2025: First Day 7-12. Mandatory High School Orientation for Students and Parents

September 10, 2025: First Wednesday

If you haven't registered yet, there's still time! WWW.TBTWANTAGH.ORG/REGFORM

In my role as Director of Education, I am working closely with the Lifelong Learning Committee to bring you programming that meets the needs of all ages. We'll have sessions with Rabbi Bar-Nahum, Cantor Timman, and Rabbi Poticha about Antisemitism. We are looking to bring in speakers on Lifecycle events and are hoping to begin an Adult Confirmation Cohort. Be in touch if you want more information on how to suggest a topic or participate in our many options!

Looking forward to another successful school year!

-Sheryl

PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

Welcome Back to Shul! We hope you had a wonderful summer and were able to take part in some of the exciting events here at TBT—whether it was celebrating Shabbat by the ocean at our Beach Shabbat, supporting the Brotherhood at their Vendor Fair, or cheering our TBT Softball Team on to victory!

We've spent the past two months working closely with the Board and Committee Chairs to ensure a smooth transition. While the summer may have brought a slower pace for some, the Clergy, Staff, and Lay Leaders have been hard at work preparing for the High Holy Days.

This year, we are inviting everyone to Find Your Why—or as we like to say, Find Your Lama. Lama is the Hebrew word for “why”. Finding your Lama means uncovering the deeper purpose or motivation behind your actions. In addition to finding your Lama, we encourage you to Live Your Lama here at TBT. There truly is something for everyone.

- Love to sing or perform? Consider joining the Mainstage Players' spring show.
- Interested in deepening your Jewish learning? The Clergy will be launching an Adult Confirmation program this fall.
- Have a green thumb? Our Giving Garden, led by the Social Action Committee, is always looking for volunteers.
- Looking to give back to the community in a fun and social way? We welcome your help at our weekly Bingo games—our Temple's biggest fundraiser—held Wednesday mornings and Thursday evenings.

Whatever your passion, there is a place for you at TBT.

Leadership is never a solo act. We've asked our Board to also Find Their Lama and to join us in leading with their Lama. The collective strength of our individual Lamas will guide our work—helping us serve more meaningfully, grow thoughtfully, and care more deeply for our community.

Lastly, we are committed to transparency in leadership. Throughout the year, as we and the Board make decisions, we intend to clearly communicate the “why” behind those choices. Understanding the purpose behind our actions strengthens our trust, unity, and shared mission.

We are often asked why Congregants who attend Board meetings are not permitted to speak until the Public Comment section of the meeting. It is important that the work of the Board be done in public, however, it is the work of the Board that is conducted at these meetings and it is at this time that the Board has the opportunity to ask questions and discuss in order to determine the outcome that is in the best interest of the Congregation. It is at the Committee level that Congregants have the opportunity to discuss, ask questions and have input to recommendations that are made to the Board. The dates and time for all Committee meetings are listed on the Temple Calendar, we hope to see you there.

We are deeply honored that you have entrusted us with the leadership of this sacred community. We are excited for the year ahead—and can't wait to see how each of you will Live Your Lama.

-Alisa and Stephanie

I would like to thank the congregation for your support during the past two years of my presidency.

I am both humbled and grateful.
- Amy Neidle

Thank you to everyone who attended the funeral service of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, Martin Happes. If you contributed to a meal or paid a shiva visit or sent a condolence card or planted a tree or made a contribution to the temple beautification fund, we thank you.
- Lynn Happes and family

Selichot Services

Selichot prayers call out to God for forgiveness. Traditionally, they are held on the Saturday evening before Rosh Hashanah to give people a chance to reflect on the changes of behavior they wish to make. The service is held late in the evening when, it is said, the heavens are especially open for God to hear our prayers most clearly.

We will analyze a painting by the French artist James Jacques Tissot, considering why he depicted imagery in particular ways and how we can interpret it for our High Holy Days. Combine this with studying Biblical texts and we have the opportunity to connect it to us and our spiritual journey during the High Holy Days and beyond.

BROTHERHOOD NEWS

Did you have a nice summer? I certainly did!

Summers in retirement are similar to summers when we were going to school. (Can you remember that long ago?) Long, fun days. Fun nights. July and August last forever. Vacations! No homework!

Retirement is similar, but different from school vacation. I have new responsibilities. As President of the Brotherhood, the Summer Vendor Fair took some amount of time up to July 20th with my fellow members of the Fair Committee. Thank you to Ben and Sharon Cernese and the Vendor Fair Committee, and members of Brotherhood who helped at the Fair. Thanks also to Eileen Schneyman, our Executive Director, who arranged to provide additional security for our Vendor Fair through our affiliation with the Secure Community Network.

We held our summer BBQ with our Temple Softball Team and friends at Wantagh Park on July 13th. The food was excellent and the friendship even better! (Thanks, Anony Baroukh for organizing the BBQ and thanks to everyone who helped getting the food, cooking, and clean-up.)

Our Brotherhood belongs a group of Brotherhoods from Reform Temples in Queens, Nassau, and Suffolk called MRJ (Men of Reform Judaism). Dave Schuster represented our Brotherhood at the annual national meeting of MRJ in Detroit, Michigan. Dave brought back and shared interesting information presented at the meeting.

We held the July MRJ meeting at Temple B'nai Torah. The presenter, Ralph Pascullo, provided an engaging presentation on the events of July 31, 1997, when he and members of his NYPD Emergency Services Unit raided a Palestinian Terrorist Cell and prevented a bombing of the NY subway in Brooklyn that saved thousands of lives. Ralph is also my Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla Commander, and I am proud to serve with him.

As we begin the 2025 – 2026 year, I want to congratulate our new Temple Co-Presidents Alisa Baroukh and Stephanie Gwerner. Congratulations to all the new Temple Officers and Board of Trustees members and officers of our Temple ARMs including Brotherhood.

Our Welcome Back Congregation Breakfast is on Sunday, September 7th. Thanks to Scott Kohn for planning this! ## CIRCLE OF FRIENDS

As we look ahead to Rosh Hashanah 5786, we want to take a step back and thank our past Co-presidents, Esther Singer and Joni Christie, whose loving guidance led us to this season.

Circle of Friends is a group of Temple members- singles as well as couples who enjoy each other's company in social settings. We love to eat together, travel, explore, and have fun together – the way that friends should! We are so happy that Temple Sinai has joined our ever-growing community.

Our new board has hit the ground running, setting up the calendar for 2025-2026. One of our major events coming up is Military Bridge on September 20th! It's not military and it's much easier than bridge. Our Master of ceremonies will provide simple instructions at the start. A sumptuous chicken dinner is also provided before the game. See our flyer on page 7 here for reservation details.

Our other initial plans for 2025-2026 include our annual Chanukah party, Game Night, and BBQ in the Park. In the spring, we will be offering discount group tickets for our members to see Beautiful at the Argyle theater in Babylon. We will provide more details in next month's column.

If you haven't seen our membership flyer on the Scroll, Facebook or Website, you can receive details by emailing our Membership Vice President, Laurie Chester, Gem15428@gmail.com.

PTA UPDATES

Welcome back to shul! We are so excited to be your PTA presidents for another year! We have a lot in store for the children of our religious school this school year! On the first day of religious school, we are excited to provide each student with a Philly Pretzel and will be at the Engagement Fair and Congregation Welcome Back Breakfast schmoozing with all the parents!

Some of the highlights of our upcoming Fall activity schedule: providing apples & honey to all students during their religious school times (Sunday and Monday) leading up to Rosh Hashanah and our annual event, "Sleepwear in the Sukkah" for grades K-4 on October 11th where you can join us for pizza, Havdalah service and fun in the Sukkah all while wearing our PJ's. We will have a similar event for grades 5-12th in January 2026.

In the summer of 2024, the PTA funded half the classrooms (9 classrooms) with the new dry erase boards, removing the old chalk boards and supplying paint supplies to brighten up the rooms. With your continued support, we plan to have all the classrooms done as soon as the roof project is completed. PTA year is filled with exciting, fun, and enriching activities, from providing Rosh Hashanah apples and honey to the students, to our annual Chanukah Brunch and Family Bingo activities, to our fabulous spring programs and many things in between. TBT PTA supports and enriches the education of all of the Religious School students. We strongly encourage you to (re)join us officially, with a Family or Sustaining membership of just $18. That bit of money is the key to allowing us to fund our activities and support the Religious School in many ways, including providing items and equipment not in its budget. We are excited to announce that we will be offering free PTA membership for families who are new members at TBT this year! We hope all of our new temple members take advantage of this new policy and join us for PTA meetings and events this year. On Sunday September 7, 2025 at 9 AM there will be a parent orientation in the sanctuary, followed by the Congregational Welcome Back Breakfast (free for all!) that the PTA is sponsoring along with the other fabulous arms of our temple. We hope to also see you at the Engagement Fair in the Social Hall- be sure to stop by the PTA table to hear more about the exciting plans we have for the school year. Register for membership and learn how you can get involved! Membership forms will be handed out that day and we are continuing to use a Zelle payment option this year, which is the easiest way to become a member right away! We will have a QR code available for quick access!

We hope to see you at our first PTA meeting on Sunday, September 14th at 9:15 AM in the Youth Lounge!

Looking forward to another great year!

Jessica Katz & Wendy Shatz, Co-Presidents TBT-PTA

CHAI CLUB

Welcome one and all to another eventful and wonderful year at our Temple. As co-presidents of Chai Club this year, we would love to have you as a member in one of the largest and most active arms in Temple B'nai Torah.

Our Vice President Jay Schoenberg and his committee have given much thought into selecting programs for the year. Monday, September 29 at 7pm, singer Diana Romano who appeared at the Rabbi's Gala, will be returning to do a program called "Songs You Know and Love." If you have never seen her perform, come on down and join us. You will not be disappointed! She is enjoyed by all age groups, and everyone is welcome to attend to enjoy Diana's outstanding voice.

Our Chai Club Paid Up Membership dinner will be on Monday, October 27. We are working on the details.

The programming committee is discussing other ideas for the year and if you would like to be involved, please let us know.

YOUTH GROUP

Shalom!

The weather may still be hot but I've got my eyes set towards Fall and a new year of Temple B'nai Torah Youth Group! I am in the process of planning meetings and offsite events. I hope that you will join us!

There are three amazing youth groups at Temple.

MNTY is for all 5th and 6th graders. We meet once a month either at Temple or at an offsite event. Our meetings include scavenger hunts, game shows, parties and sing downs. Last year our events included Q-Zar, Empire Adventure Park and bowling. We always have a great time.

BNTY JR is for all 7th and 8th graders. We meet one Monday night a month and are included in all offsite events. BNTY JR gets to help setup and run the Purim carnival. They have awesome meetings that are both fun and educational.

BNTY is for all high school students. BNTY meets just about every Monday. BNTY's meetings are mostly run by our board members. These meetings are always fun. Many contain important discussions. BNTY members help out at Temple events, have their own Shabbat, and develop programming skills. BNTY Board members are an amazing group that accept the responsibility of creating and running the meetings.

I look forward to seeing you at our meetings. If you have any question, concerns or suggestions send me an email at mdewin@tbtwantagh.org or call me at 516-385-0481.

Thank you!
Mark Derwin, Youth Director

All Temple members are invited to this free program!

We will also celebrate September birthdays.

Drinks, snacks, and desserts will be served.

Social Action/Social Justice Committee

The Social Action/Social Justice Committee wishes you all a Happy, Healthy, and Peaceful New Year!

We look forward to seeing you at the Back to Shul BBQ (Sept. 5) and the Membership Engagement Fair (Sept 7) ! The Membership Engagement Fair provides a great opportunity to get to know about the Social Action/Social Justice Committee and all the wonderful things we do all year in the service of Tikkun Olam. Stop by our table and say Hi, ask questions and maybe even sign up to join us! You are also welcome to come by the Garden at TBT that morning and we will provide tours for those who haven't had the opportunity to learn about our amazing space.

Thank you to all who organized, donated, and distributed school supplies this summer. These supplies go a long way to help students feel confident and prepared to take on the challenges of a new school year and allows their parents to allocate scarce resources to other needed items

This month we begin TBT's annual High Holy Day Food Drive (Sept. 13 - Oct. 13) on behalf of Island Harvest and Mazon: A Jewish Response to Hunger. Please pick up and fill one of the grocery bags we will provide and return it when you come to TBT for services (see flyer for details.)

Remember that after the High Holy Day drive is over, please consider bringing a non-perishable food item whenever you come to TBT. These donations help local pantries which are struggling to keep their shelves stocked given the high demand for food this Fall.

For your traditional Tashlich observance, (Sept. 24) consider using small pebbles, twigs or leaves instead of breadcrumbs. It is important to note that bread has been found to be harmful to ducks, geese and other waterfowl and marine life.

<https://reformjudaism.org/blog/how-cast-away-your-sins-and-protect-environment> "As you participate in this ritual and begin the atonement process, think of ways you can act in the coming year to help those who are in need of food." While we may have the luxury of tossing away bread, remember that those who are food insecure do not. <https://reformjudaism.org/jewish-holidays/rosh-hashanah/social-action-guide-high-holidays>.

Then, on September 28, join us for TBT's 2nd annual Reverse Tashlich Beach Clean Up. During a regular Tashlich service we cast our sins into the water. A Reverse Tashlich asks us to remove our sins from the waterways, by clearing the area of plastics and other discarded items that are harmful to wildlife. Join us and be part of Repair the Seas' 8th annual International Jewish Waterfront Clean-up. See flier for details.

We always welcome new members! For information about the Social Action/Social Justice Committee or any of our projects, contact Rona Kauffman at ronakauffman@yahoo.com, Jason Newman at jaynew4@gmail.com or Jayne Krompier at jturtle54@msn.com

Our next meeting will be on Sept. 10 at 7:00 p.m. (in person)

It is certainly our hope that the time will come when there are fewer people struggling with food insecurity.

If you, or someone you know is in need of food support, you can use Island Harvest's interactive map on their website to find a food pantry near you or text your zip code to (631) 450-3775 to get a list of nearby pantries. You can also call the SNAP Hotline at (516) 805-1642 to see if you are eligible.

HIGH HOLY DAY FOOD DRIVE Sept 13 - Oct 13, 2025

FOOD PANTRIES ON LONG ISLAND
NEED OUR HELP *Even More this Year!

Each year we do what we can to fulfill the mitzvah of “Feeding the Hungry”

Paper bags to fill, as well as envelopes for monetary donations, will be provided during ticket/prayer book/honey pick up and at services

Bring your donations of non-perishable food items, including canned proteins and baby foods,
anytime you come to TBT during the High Holy Days or when you drop off your High Holy Day prayer books)

Please, no glass jars.

Food items collected will be donated to Island Harvest

Monetary donations can be sent to Mazon

Back by Popular Demand!

Sisterhood will continue its Social Action project in support of a non-profit group called Love, Nana by Backyard Players and Friends. This group collects new and gently used baby clothes, hats, socks, and shoes up to size 24 months. They also collect small books and baby blankets for this age range (please no toys until further notice). Volunteers transform these donations into gift packages for specific sizes, which are color or theme coordinated and are packed to look new and special. Each includes a card that says "Love, Nana" like you might do for your own grandchild. Packages are distributed to social service agencies for families in need, hospitals and immigrant families.

Love, Nana, is part of Backyard Players and Friends, which provides services to young adults and teens with intellectual disabilities or autism. These individuals volunteer a few times a week to launder, fold and sort the items needed for the Love, Nana packages.

Bring your items when you come to any Sisterhood events throughout the year and we will bring them to Love, Nana's facility in Rockville Centre. If you cannot come to a Sisterhood event and have items you wish to donated, or if you have any questions, contact Rona Kauffman at socialaction@temple-bnai-torah.org.

MONDAY, October 20, 2025, at 7:00 - 9:00 pm

Join us as we learn and laugh with Sal St. George and the wonderful Robin Williams.

The Robin Williams Story

His motion picture career included Good Morning Vietnam, Dead Poets Society, The Fisher King, Birdcage, Hook, Mrs. Doubtfire, and Good Will Hunting for which he won the Academy Award. This affectionate remembrance of one of our most gifted entertainers will touch your heart and tickle your funny bone. (Various clips depicting highlights of William's dynamic career included.)
