

Antisemitism: Past and Present

During these sessions, Rabbi Bar Nahum will lead us in taking a closer look at the history of antisemitism and seek to pay special attention to how it manifests in the world today. We will study primary sources to understand the origins of "the world's longest hatred" and learn how it has evolved into its modern form. We cannot confront it if we don't know what it is.

Rabbi Poticha will offer sessions about modern manifestations of antisemitism and attempts to combat it
